ATERDESS. IT is with pleasure, says the Paducah Daily News, that we announce the mar-risge of Captain George O. Hart and Miss Maria F., daughter of Captain J. F. Harris, all of this city. The Rev. Dr. J. T. Hendrick performed the ceremony at the residence of the bride's father last evening (Monday), February 21st, in the presence of the relations of the family and a few intimate friends Toe interesting event that we are now so happy to chronicle has not taken us by surprise, but the friends of the gallan bridegroom and the accomplished bride are nose the less pleased on that sccount. We congratulate Captain George on his most most excellent good fortune to securing a companion for life, to divide his sorrows and double his joys. We congr telate the fair young geuilewoman, who is known and praised for her many virtues and excellencies of head and heart, that she has secured a husband worthy of her love and cor fi dence. The happy pair commence married life under the most favorable suspices. The sun shives brightly today, the anniversary of the birth of him who was "first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his country men" May the future days of the wed ded Harts be as bright, useful and b autitul as those of George and Martha Washington. And when, at the close of their benefitent existences, they are summoned from the duties of this world to the reward of the good, the pure and the faithful, may they not forget that their example of conjugal felicity shall remain as a perpetual blessing upon all who may come after them.
